APOTHECARIES HALL OF DUBLIN.

THE Subscribers to which were incorporated by Act of Parliament, in 1791, for the Purpose of regulating the Profession of Pharmacy in Ireland, and establishing an Hall in Dublin, for the Sale of simple and compound Medicines, which are chosen and prepared under the Inspection of a sworn Court of Directors annually elected on the 1st of August. By the Act, Oils and Colours, and Arsenic, are not to be prepared or sold in the Shop where Medicines are, under a Penalty. Any Apothecary is liable to a Penalty, who takes an Apprentice for a less Term than seven Years, or one not certified, as to his Education, by the Directors of this Hall. It is further enacted, that no Apothecary in Ireland shall open Shop, or act as Foreman or Shopman to an Apothecary, unless examined and certified by the Directors of this Hall.

Regulations of this Nature, so obviously calculated to serve Society, will, it is hoped, be promoted by the Public in giving a marked preference to those Apothecaries who comply with the Act.

THIS Hospital was opened for the Reception of Patients in November 1792, under the Patronage and Inspection of the College of Physicians. From that Period to November 1797, nine hundred and forty-one Persons were admitted, the great Majority of them labouring under contagious Diseases, and received such Relief as the Nature of their respective complaints allowed. During the Winter Season, the Expence of a certain Number of Beds is defrayed by the College of Physicians, from the Funds appropriated by the late Sir PATRICK DUNN, for establishing a School of Physic in this Kingdom: All the Beds above this limited Number which the Hospital is capable of containing, must remain vacant and useless during the Winter, and the whole of them during the Summer, except they be supported by public contribution or by subscription. A Subscriber of ten Guineas annually, or of one hundred Pounds, is entitled to keep one Bed constantly full, and in Case of vacancy in other Beds, a preference is always given to any of his extraordinary recommendations. Every two Guinea Subscription entitles to one recommendation; and Attention is paid to their extra-recommendation, as to those of Annual or Life Subscribers.

LOCK PENITENTIARY AND WORK-HOUSE, for the Reception and Employment of Women leaving the LOCK HOSPITAL, and desirous of returning into the Paths of Industry and Virtue: Opened on the 19th of March 1794, in a large House in Dorset-street. It has already afforded Refuge to above ONE HUNDRED AND FIFTY Females, who must otherwise have gone on to perish without the possibility of extricating themselves from Wretchedness and Vice. Many of these have been restored to their Families; more placed in Services, or other Employments in which they continue to support themselves by honest Industry. This Charity has been endowed by the Generosity of WILLIAM SMYTH, Esq; of Granby-row, with a Chapel and other Buildings, vested in the Hands of five Trustees, Ministers of the established Church.

The net Produce of Labour in the LOCK PENITENTIARY, amounts already to 200l. per Annum. All Branches of Washing, Calendering, Mangling, &c. are carried on; and Employment is solicited. Printed Rates and Regulations for the Laundry, may be had by Application at the House.

Subscriptions and Donations are received at the Bank of the Right Hon. David Latouche and Co.: and it is hoped that an Institution, calculated at once to relieve the most wretched, and to reform the most depraved, will continue to interest the Feelings and approve itself to the Judgment of a benevolent and discerning Public.

Several Ladies of Rank, Fortune and Humanity, superintend the Charity.

A Subscription of Four Guineas constitutes a Governess for the Year; Twenty Guineas for Life.

REFORM OF THE CRIMINAL POOR, No. 8, George's-Hill.

THE Association for discountenancing Vice, and promoting the Practice of Religion and Virtue, in order to decrease, as far as in them lay, the number of victims to public justice, opened 1st May, 1794, an establishment denominated the REFORM OF THE CRIMINAL POOR, comprizing two descriptions of Objects, viz. "The Children of convict parents, and young Criminals under sentence of the law."

For the purpose of conducting this Institution, they annually elect a Committee of twenty-one Members, who are responsible for the appropriation of the subscriptions, and under whose care the objects of the institution are placed.

The Children are lodged, dieted, and clothed, taught regular trades, carefully instructed in the principles of religion, strictly trained to habits of industry, cleanliness, and moral decorum, and at length sent into the world qualified to be independent and useful, as well as virtuous members of the community.

There are at present eighteen children accommodated in the house; eight of whom were actual criminals; the remaining ten are children of Parents who have suffered death or transportation for different felonies; and the Committee with pleasure inform the public, that the conduct of all those children, has been almost unexceptionably blameless since their admission.

The Institution was supported from its commencement, until a period about five months past, by a contribution from the funds of the Association, and the benefactions of some humane and liberal members of it; but so heavy were the expenditures on taking a large house, thoroughly repairing it, &c. that the Committee were under the painful necessity of applying for immediate aid, by sending a deputation from house to house, through the City; by which means they raised a sum which has since prevented the establishment from falling; but this supply being now exhausted, they again implore the countenance and pecuniary aid of the humane and opulent.
